Dating back to the 9th century, Watlington is a picturesque, bustling market town (reputedly England's smallest) with a range of shops, pubs, sporting facilities & clubs, Surgery & Pharmacy, as well as outstanding Pre-School, Primary & Secondary schools. Located at the foot of the Ridgeway National Trail, Watlington is now famous for the formally endangered Red Kites. Junction 6 of the M40 is within three miles of the town, providing easy access to the Midlands, London and the regional business centres of Oxford and High Wycombe. Mainline stations are located at Princes Risborough and High Wycombe.
