Bledlow Village

The village of Bledlow lies in the Vale of Aylesbury close to the Chilterns in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The village is dominated by its church and manor house now owned by Lord Carrington. This area offers access to many footpaths and bridleways including the Chiltern Way, Ridgeway and nearby the Icknield Way. Bledlow also has an attractive pub which is popular with walkers and ramblers and an active cricket club.

The nearby regional centres of Thame, Chinnor, Princes Risborough, Wendover and Aylesbury provide shopping and recreational facilities. Mainline train services to London Marylebone are available from Princes Risborough and High Wycombe. Easy access to the M40 via junction 6 means that Oxford and London, the West End and the M25 Heathrow are within easy reach.

Buckinghamshire is renowned for its choice and standard of schooling, both state and private as the county is one of the last to maintain the traditional grammar school system. The property is ideally situated to take full advantage of the choice of grammar schools located nearby and Bledlow Ridge itself has a very well-regarded primary school.
