Location

Radnage is a small village located in the Chiltern Hills and occupies some of the most beautiful countryside in the county with quiet country lanes and an assortment of traditional farmhouses, cottages and detached homes. The village has a 12th century church. There are lots of footpaths and bridleways in the immediate vicinity and some link up to the Ridgeway. Despite its rural atmosphere, the village is close to Stokenchurch, Chinnor, Princes Risborough and High Wycombe.

In terms of schooling, the village has a well-regarded combined school, as well as nationally recognized senior schools such as the Royal Grammar School, Wycombe High School, and John Hampden Grammar School within catchment.

For the commuter there is easy access to the M40 motorway at Junction 5, providing links to Oxford, Birmingham and London. The nearest railway station is Princes Risborough just 5 miles away, with links to London Marylebone (35 minutes) and Birmingham.
